

2017 Folk Workshop Weekend

Saturday, February 11
9 a.m.-noon
Session 1

Beginning Blacksmithing Beginners will be introduced to the coal forge as well as the basics of working with steel using the anvil. Participants will learn basic forging techniques and tools, as well as fire management and will have time to test the skills learned by making an item to take home. Instructor Steve Lowry; Limit 6; Members, $25; Nonmembers, $30; Blacksmith Shop

Hearth Cooking Cooking on the hearth will introduce participants to making your own mouth-watering foods without the use of electricity. This session will give participants the chance to cook a variety of foods including meats, stews and breads on the hearth with fire and a Dutch oven. This session is ideal for campers in search of new meal time techniques or anyone interested in learning how our ancestors kept their families fed. Instructor Liz Olliff; Limit 6; Members, $20; Nonmembers, $25; Watson Cabin

Gourd Painting Painters of all levels are invited to select his or her own nature scene or image from our collection or bring your own for this gourd painting session. Students will learn this interesting folk tradition that was started by the Indians with dipper bowls. Pick your own special gourd type from a martin to kettle gourd. We provide all the materials including paints, brushes and gourds. Please wear old clothing or a smock. Instructor Jeannie Bozeman; Limit 10; Members, $25; Nonmembers, $30; Ag Building

Chair Caning and Twine Bottoms Your instructors will provide a brief introduction on replacing chair bottoms and then guide you through the process. For twine bottoms you may bring your own chair if you choose. Please bring a caning needle. For caning no chair is necessary. Instructors Roy Cooley and Billy Lawson; Limit 8 (4 for caning, 4 for twine bottoms); Members, $20; Nonmembers, $25; Classroom

Reed Baskets Learn the time-honored tradition of basket-making. Participants will have the opportunity to make a small 6" utility reed basket that you can carry home.
